

I'm concerned to hear about a proposed change to the do-not-call law that would permit former vendors to continuing contacting me for up to 18 months after I have ended business with them.

I have very much enjoyed the peace of receiving minimal phone calls under the current do-not-call rules in Wisconsin.